Local Radiator Expert Philippe Trentin Elected to the Board of Directors of Leading Industry Association

MOUNT LAUREL, N.J. — Philippe Trentin of Armand Signori Auto Radiateur in Laval, Quebec, has been elected to the Board of Directors of NARSA – The International Heat Transfer Association. Trentin will serve as Canadian Regional Chairman. As a member of the NARSA Board of Directors, Trentin will help shape the future agenda and direction of the association.

NARSA is a non-profit trade association providing educational, technical, safety and marketing programs for individuals in the engine cooling and heat transfer industry. The association is comprised of heat transfer specialists, manufacturers and suppliers located in 42 countries. NARSA is committed to educating consumers, promoting educational practices and improving procedures, fostering and promoting business friendships, conducting research and providing solutions for the industry's issues.

“On behalf of the association, I would like to thank Philippe for his service and commitment to NARSA,” commented Jim Halowka, National President of the Board of Directors of the association. “NARSA is fortunate to have such a dedicated individual working to further the goals of the organization and the interests of the industry.”
